

The I. O. F. Procession.
To-morrow the great procession of the I. O. F. will, of course, be the great thing on everybody's mind. The order numbers no many of our principal business men and mechanics, as well as the professionals, that the procession will be the largest ever seen in Louisville. The procession, the oration, and the supper, will constitute the greatest celebration ever known in this part of the country. For the order of procession and the route, our readers are referred to the advertisement in another column. To-morrow we shall give a more extended and detailed notice.

Ran Away.—Capt. Lockhart, who lives near the mouth of the canal, had a very valuable negro woman and boy who ran away on Monday night during the severe storm. The woman was hired out to work. At six o'clock she came to the Captain's house. Very soon afterwards a negro boy, about twelve or fifteen years of age, went up stairs, stole some silver spoons, and attempted to break into the bureau, but being frightened off by some noise, he came down, and the woman, and neither of them have as yet been heard of. It was almost impossible to cross the river in such a storm.

House and Kitchen Furnishing Goods.—We ask the attention of hotel and house keepers to the advertisement in another column of our enterprising friend W. S. Knott. He is now receiving one of the largest and most complete stocks of house and kitchen furnishing goods to be found in the city. He has everything in the way of wooden, tin, britannia and silver plated ware; in fact, at his store everything can be had, from an iron pot to a fine globe. He is a clever gentleman and sells his goods at low prices.

Special sale this morning (Wednesday) at 10 o'clock, at the auction rooms of Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co., of a large stock of men's extra white Marcellines and linen bosom shirts, boys' white and flannel shirts, bleached and brown cotton flannel underwear, and superior blue and red hose. Flannel shirts and drawers just received from one of the largest manufacturers in New York. A fine of extra merino under wear will also be sold. Clothing merchants and dealers will do well to attend.

Upholstery Goods.—Mr. Henry Wahlhoff, No. 547 Main street, south side, between Second and Third, is supplied with a large stock of all such goods as pertain to his line of trade. Every description of bed furnishing, comforters, etc., may be had at prices to suit the times. Mr. W. is thoroughly familiar with the trade, and can supply all wants at the shortest notice.

Jewelry and Clothing at Auction.—Mr. W. A. Holland, auctioneer, will sell at auction, this morning, at rooms No. 518, on the north side of Market, near Second, a fine lot of jewelry, consisting of many very neat and beautiful sets of gold and silver, and a fine lot of clothing, to which he invites the attention of the public. Sale will be continued in the evening, at 7 o'clock. Read advertisement.

There will be another sale of lots at public auction, in this young county on the 24th and 25th of November next, at which time a large amount of valuable property will be offered and sold, upon terms of one-fourth cash, the balance in three equal annual payments.

A woman in St. Louis, named Susan Mansfield, a few days ago, married a drunken vagabond, who afterwards ill-treated and cruelly abused her. She attempted suicide by hanging, and was found before life was extinct and cut down, and by careful treatment will recover. She is described as handsome, and "has been better days."

The Cincinnati Murder Case.—The parties engaged in the murder of Kate Barran, in Cincinnati, last Saturday, had their trial before Judge Priden on Monday. William Swift was discharged, while Charles Cook and William Seiter were committed to the county jail, to await their trial before the Court for the charge of murder in the third degree.

Kicked to Death by a Gun.—William Cameron, who resided near Oakville, Ill., purchased a shot-gun that had a load in it, and a few days thereafter shot it off, when it kicked with such force as to rupture his abdomen, and cause a wound that produced his death in a few hours. This is a singular accident to terminate fatally.

We learn from the Cincinnati papers that there are now in the jail, awaiting trial, six different parties, guilty of murders, occurring within a few days. This is a bad show, but to the credit of the city, he said, they do not turn murderers loose on the community to commit further atrocities.

The funeral of Herr Otto, one of the leading actors of our German Theater, was largely attended on Sunday last. A benefit has been kindly tendered his widow and child this evening, by Mr. Wolf, the generous proprietor, at Mozart Hall.

Nicaragua.—Miguel Yriarte, the Nicaraguan Minister, has issued a notice that in consequence of the Republic of Nicaragua being again threatened by filibusters, all persons landing on the shores of that country must be provided with passports.

The "Gallop" restaurant, southeast corner of Hancock and Green streets, kept by Mr. Uri Bailey, one of the nearest establishments in the city, where one can always be found all the delicacies of the season served in a No. 1 style.

The Richmond Register has been on target and otherwise greatly improved in appearance. It is printed on new type, and is one of the largest papers in the State of Virginia.

The article on our first page yesterday morning should have been credited to the Cincinnati Gazette of Monday, but failed through some oversight of the printer.

Philip Hamilton, candidate for Congress, in the Fifth District, in New York, is a son of General Alexander Hamilton, renowned in American history.

The shaft of a fine horse yesterday throwing the horse on his side, and killing him almost instantly.

There were few arrests yesterday, and scarcely any of importance.

The Louisville gun guard was yesterday afternoon on parade.

Democratic Meeting in Clarke.
At a meeting of the Democracy of Clarke county, held in the court house in Winchester, on the 25th October, being county day, Samuel Smith, Esq., was called to the chair, and L. B. Gish by appointed secretary. The purpose of the meeting having been made known, the following resolutions were introduced by Mr. J. T. Tucker, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we have the most implicit faith in the administration of James Buchanan, believing his administration to be the administration of the internal affairs of our government to be wise and just, that our foreign affairs have been conducted with high statesmanship, like ability, resulting advantage to our Government and raising our position among nations still higher as a just and conservative nation, a nation at once to be feared and respected.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to all combinations of factions of every kind, whether of Abolitionists, Democrats, Protectionists, Greenbackers, or any other sects, believing the combination now advocated by the Know Nothing pros to be nothing but a tool for the purpose of attacking the vital rights of our citizens that we stand true to the principles of Democracy as the only safe guard of our rights.

Resolved, That while we are firm supporters of freedom of opinion, and freedom of press, as a just right, yet we have much to fear of those who would use the press as a tool for the purpose of attacking the vital rights of our citizens, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Resolved, That we stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros, and we therefore stand firm in our opposition to the Know Nothing pros.

Letter from Washington, Oct. 26th, 1858.

News. Rumors. Nothing of material interest has transpired here of late worthy of mention. Business of every description is dull—in fact our town wears a dismal visage—no amusement. "Stetson's Dramatic Troupe" has long since departed from this place, and I am told "expelled" at Cincinnati. The indefatigable Simons, their agent, passed through here a few days since, looking to use a common expression, "down in the mouth". He informed me that Billy Blake, the excellent comedian, who brought down, whilst here, such tremendous rounds of applause, and who to the Queen City, where he has secured engagements to perform, and as for himself (Simons), he was going to the Empire State to winter. My success over the pleasure of an introduction to the talented and distinguished actor, editor of the Kentucky Statesman and Cincinnati Argus, J. H. Johnson, is something to be proud of. I had previously heard that he was one of "nature's noblemen," courteous and kind; an unassuming Democrat, national in his views, and polite to his opponents. An hour's conversation completely "wadded" me to him, in all of my ramblings, have never met with any one who I admire more than this gentleman. I think, he is connected editorially with the Frankfort Freeman. The Democracy of this county desire establishing a paper here in a few months. If they do, Johnson will be its editor. He was seen on business relating to this matter.

A Democratic gathering, with such an able and fluent speaker as Johnson, would certainly revolutionize here in a short time.

A projected meeting is being held in the Reform Baptist Church, on the 29th inst., at the residence of Mr. Johnson, to the effect of the present time, but few sinners have turned away from the "broad road" that leads to ruin. More anon.

Yours, C. T. K.

Letter from Hopkins County, October 23, 1858.

Meers Editors: We have fine weather—rather warm for the latter part of October. The present crop of corn is very good. Farmers have nearly enough corn to fatten their pork. I think we have more pork for market in Hopkins than was ever known before. Every farmer seems desirous to sell pork.

The tobacco crop is about an average one. Buyers are plenty, and they offer from six to eight dollars for the present crop. Some farmers have engaged for three hundred. Some farmers have engaged for three hundred.

A considerable decline has taken place in the price of horses and mules. Good horses and mules can be bought now for $1200 to $1400. A great many drivers of horses and mules through Hopkins county this fall, going South. Protracted meetings are very common here. Three are going on in this neighborhood at this time—two of the Baptists and one of the Methodists. A great many have joined the Church.

Yours respectfully, JUNIUS.

Letter from Mississippi, October 23, 1858.

Meers Editors: Our election for county and circuit officers is past, and no one killed or crippled. No political test was made. The thing of a hue and cry was raised against the county convention. Some of the nominees are elected. Altogether it was a cold, intimate affair, though a large vote was polled—over 3000. The voters all stood firm, except those who partook too freely of stimulants; many such there were who soon lost their equilibrium and commenced clawing the air.

We are about due gathering corn. The yield is good, and sells readily at a fair price. Cotton is going into market briskly for so early in the season. Very little wheat so far in the season. Very little wheat so far in the season.

Sickness still prevails to some extent—mostly cholera and fever, and some cases of what the doctors term scarlet rash.

At the Circuit Court for this county, held the first day of the present month, a very interesting case was tried, and resulted in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. A man was shot some ten days since in Belleville. Two young men were shown from horses, at about the same time, in the south part of the county, and badly hurt, it is killed.

In common with the rest of mankind, we had the same mouth or black tongue around the outside of the summer and fall, but lost very few. Copious and cold rains, which were very much needed, have been falling, yet I will try to get some subscribers for your paper. Respectfully yours, D.

A Wife Worth Having.

Mr. Walsh, in one of his letters from Paris, records how a noble wife was nobly rewarded. It appears that in 1819, M. de Montigny bequeathed an annual sum of 10,000 francs to a poor Frenchman or woman who should in the year perform the act most virtuous or morally creditable. The provision for the last year has just been adjudged to a peasant woman, M^{re} Durand, of the department of Valenciennes, for this exemplary conduct. "Her husband," says Mr. Walsh, "was a cruel and capricious tyrant, who reigned at will; he was acquired with difficulty, and by a small majority of the jury. The wife sustained him devotedly throughout the trial, and insisted on his innocence, and resolved to find the real culprit; she persevered in the search for several years; she discovered him, and had him brought to justice. Their conviction fulfilled her intention, which was to establish the character of her husband—the true ascendant for an honest man." The good woman will be passing rich with his inheritance.

Autumn.

There is a beautiful path leading now to the autumnal scene in the cluster of trees, and from a leafy bower, the autumnal scene is more to the imagination, like a summer bird, than to the eye. The autumnal scene is more to the imagination, like a summer bird, than to the eye.
